About Tonier Cain
Tonier "Neen" Cain lived on the streets for twenty nightmarish years. Years filled with hunger, brutality and a lifestyle when described seems unconscionable. Incarcerated and pregnant in 2004, someone finally took the time to ask: "what happened to you" instead of "what's wrong with you." It is at that moment she began her journey to become a survivor. As Ms. Cain shares her story, audience members find themselves challenging their professional and personal beliefs. Her experience illustrates the consequences that untreated trauma has on individuals and society at large, including mental health problems, addiction, homelessness and incarceration. Her story is a testimony to the resiliency of the human spirit exemplifying the innate human instinct to survive.

Today Ms. Cain is:
• The team leader for the National Center for Trauma-Informed Care, with the National Association of State Mental Health Program Directors
• A consumer advocate who speaks all over the world on trauma, incarceration, and recovery
• The CEO and founder of Healing Neen.
• Featured in the documentary "Behind Closed Doors: Trauma Survivors and the Psychiatric System"
