Florida Council Against Sexual Violence
Annual Conference
June 9-11, 2010
Hyatt Regency Sarasota
Sarasota, Florida.
KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Dorothy Edwards, Ph.D.
“Green Dot Nation”
Dr. Dorothy Edwards holds a Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology from Texas Woman’s University and is currently serving as the founding Director of University of Kentucky’s Violence Intervention and Prevention Center. She has worked in both counseling and teaching capacities in higher education at Appalachian State University and Texas Women’s University and founded the Community Education Program at Denton County Friends of the Family, addressing sexual assault and relationship violence. She has developed and implemented professional training seminars on topics related to power-based personal violence, diversity, volunteer organizing, and organizational capacity building.

Byron Hurt, “Game Changers: Can Men Shift the Momentum of Gender Violence Prevention?”
Byron Hurt is an award-winning documentary filmmaker, published writer, anti-sexist activist, and lecturer. Since 1993, he has been using his craft, his voice, and his writings to broaden and deepen how people think about gender, race, sex, violence, music, and visual media. As an activist, Byron has served as a gender violence prevention educator. The former Northeastern University football quarterback was also a founding member of the Mentors in Violence Prevention (MVP) program, the leading college-based rape and domestic violence prevention initiative for college and professional athletics. Hurt also served as an Associate Director of the first gender violence prevention program in the United States Marine Corps.

Loretta Ross, “Ending Violence Against Women Through Human Rights”
A founding member of SisterSong, Loretta Ross became National Coordinator in 2005. In 2004, Loretta was National Co-Director of the April 25, 2004 March for Women’s Lives in Washington D.C., the largest protest march in U.S. history with more than one million participants. From 1996-2004, she was the Founder and Executive Director of the National Center for Human Rights Education (NCHRE) in Atlanta, Georgia. She is an expert on human rights, women’s issues, diversity issues, hate groups and right-wing organizations. Ms. Ross is presently writing a book on reproductive rights entitled Black Abortion.

Steven N. Gold, Ph.D., Three Part Clinical Series: Contextual Therapy for Prolonged Child Sexual Abuse Survivors
Dr. Gold is a Professor at the Nova Southeastern University (NSU) Center for Psychological Studies and the Founder and Director of NSU’s Trauma Resolution & Integration Program (TRIP). He currently serves as immediate past president of the American Psychological Association Division of Trauma Psychology (56) and is editor of the new journal of Division 56, Psychological Trauma: Theory, Research, Practice and Policy. In 2004 he served as president of the International Society for the Study of Trauma and Dissociation (ISSTD). He is a Fellow of ISSTD and of the American Psychological Association (APA).

Special Performance: Amy Marschak “An Angel Cried a Tear Last Night”
The one-woman play performed and written by Amy Marschak will take you on a journey through one girl’s life, her optimism, her secret, and her striving past odds that are all stacked against her.
CONFERENCE HOSTS

Wellness Workshops
Wellness workshops are designed specifically to introduce participants to a variety of self-care activities. Participants will walk away with hands-on innovative strategies that they can use in their everyday lives.

About FCASV:
Florida Council Against Sexual Violence is a statewide nonprofit organization committed to victims and survivors of sexual violence and the sexual assault crisis programs who serve them. FCASV serves as a resource to the state on sexual violence issues. We host statewide conferences and trainings, bringing state-of-the-art information from around the nation to Florida. We provide technical assistance to agencies seeking to improve their services for rape victims, and we provide up-to-date information to the public. By using our toll-free information line, callers can access information from our resource library or from our network of national resources. FCASV provides information, assistance and leadership on all aspects of sexual violence, including rape, child abuse, stalking and sexual harassment.

Hotel Information:
Hyatt Regency Sarasota
1000 Boulevard of the Arts
Sarasota; FL; 34236
941-953-1234 or
800-233-1234
Hyatt Regency Sarasota is a full-service hotel located just minutes from the white sand beaches of Sarasota.

Hotel Highlights:
- Boating, cruising, and fishing from the hotel’s private marina
- Hyatt’s lagoon shaped tropical pool with zero point and hot tub
- All water view luxurious sleeping rooms
- Lobby Bar for networking
- Close to downtown and Lido Beach

About FCADV:
FCADV operates Florida’s toll-free domestic violence hotline (1-800-500-1119), linking callers to the nearest domestic violence center and provides translation assistance when needed. In addition, FCADV maintains a resource library of books, periodicals, and videos regarding domestic violence issues. FCADV has also developed posters, brochures, and safety plans. Many of these are available in several languages and may be ordered through FCADV.

FCADV serves as the primary voice for victims of domestic violence and their children in the public policy arena. We work closely with the Executive and Legislative branches to create and implement public policy that strengthens penalties for batterers and enhances services for survivors of domestic violence. Through this effort, Florida continues to have some of the strongest domestic violence public policy in the country.

Women of Color Caucus Meeting
Wednesday, June 9, 5:00-6:00 p.m. This meeting for women of color working as domestic and sexual violence victim advocates will focus on ways to maximize services and outreach to underrepresented communities.
